About the Minnesota Catholic Conference:

The Minnesota Catholic Conference is the public policy voice of the Catholic Church in Minnesota. The MCC represents the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis and the Dioceses of Crookston, Duluth, New Ulm, St. Cloud and Winona to elected officials at the state and federal level.

As part of our mission, the MCC works to identify and promote public policy objectives that build the common good in accordance with the principals of Catholic Social Teaching. The MCC works in the areas of life, health, education, welfare, human and civil rights.

To achieve these aims, the MCC communicates with policy makers at the state and federal level, prepares a variety of publications for those interested in working for the common good and partners with other groups and organizations on issues of mutual concern.
